(Please note only authorised signatories are permitted to sign this agreement)

- Your GS1 SA Company Prefix will be sent to you upon receipt of your completed application form and payment of appropriate fees.
- The GS1 Company Prefix allocated to your company is exclusively for your use - you may not assign, sell, licence or allow its use by any other company at any time.
- Your membership & licence may be terminated if your account is not paid annually (only for applicable number banks) or if you do not abide by GS1 South Africa specifications and guidelines.
- You must advise GS1 South Africa by completing the appropriate termination form if you wish to cancel your membership. Cancellation will result in the withdrawal of the right to use GS1 Identification Keys (i.e. Barcodes). Should GS1 Identification Keys (I.E. Barcodes) still be used in active trading after cancellation it will be deemed a breach of contract.
- All members who wish to attend training, can complete the booking form at an additional cost for the training. (Training is not compulsory but it is recommended)
- For members applying for 100 – 100 000 numbers, training is mandatory, and part of your GS1 membership.

General Terms of Membership (extract)

1. A member receives a non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to use the GS1 GS1 Global Trade Item Numbers (GTINs) GTINs may only be allocated by the member. It is advised to allocate GTINs sequentially. In the event where a company, brand name or individual product is sold to a third party, written permission and approval from GS1 South Africa is required if the GTIN is to remain with the product(s) temporarily. Individual GTINs may, under no circumstances whatsoever, be sold to any other party. Should any member be found to be in breach of these rules, membership shall be terminated with immediate effect and the entire number bank will be withdrawn.
2. Members agree to abide by and comply with all technical standards as set out by GS1 Global and GS1 South Africa.
3. GS1 South Africa reserves the right to inspect your operation about the identification, numbering and bar coding of your products as and when necessary to ensure that the terms and conditions are being observed and complied with. Any use of the GS1 Numbering System after termination of membership for whatever reason is strictly forbidden. Continued use renders the ex member liable for any outstanding licence fee (where applicable) and damages which might be suffered by GS1 South Africa and/or any of its members.
4. The annual fee is applicable for the prefix, irrespective of the fact that the member has allocated GTINs within the range or not.
5. We reserve all rights in relation to the commencement of legal proceedings, against [you/your company] and any other persons involved in the conduct that goes against the terms & conditions of use of GS1 Intellectual Property ie non-payment of licence fees and continued use of GCP and GTINS.
6. We further reserve the right to refuse including any of the products identified by a GTIN commencing with your GCPs in any of our directories or catalogues should it be found that GTINs are being used by any company who has not maintained the relevant annual licence fee.
7. The annual licence fee (where applicable) must be paid in full by no later than 30 days from date of invoice. Should you not receive an invoice for the annual fee, contact GS1 SA immediately. GS1 South Africa reserves the right to cancel membership and inform retailers that the allocated GTINs (barcodes) are not valid anymore should payment remain outstanding thereafter.
8. Barcode Training is available throughout the year. Enquiries to attend a workshop can be made through services@cgcsa.co.za
9. The complete Terms and Conditions of Membership are attached in the application forms sent to all new Members.
