

Global GS1 Healthcare Conference

Bangkok | Thailand

30 October – 1 November 2018

34th GLOBAL GS1 HEALTHCARE CONFERENCE

Safer, more efficient care starts with a simple scan

Highlights

- A unique platform for healthcare professionals around the world to meet, exchange experiences and advance in the implementation of global standards - to increase supply chain efficiency and patient safety
- Listen and interact with leading speakers from the healthcare community around the world, including suppliers, wholesalers, hospitals, regulatory bodies, government jurisdiction and solution providers
- Expected attendees: 250 - 300 from over 30 countries

Key topics

- The global trends in the healthcare sector including medical device and pharmaceutical identification
- Anti-counterfeit, traceability and patient safety initiatives
- Discover through the marketplace and poster session our GS1 standards in action
- Site visits, workshop sessions as well as networking events and training sessions as part of conference agenda

Think Tank meeting

- Open to regulatory bodies and inter-governmental organisations (by invitation only)

Venue

- Centara Grand & Bangkok Convention Centre at CentralWorld

Hosted by

The Global Language of Business