GS1 Barcode Standards

Whether new member of GS1, acquired new barcode numbers or just in need of a refresher of the barcode rules? Attend an online barcode training workshop session with us now!

Participation in a barcode workshop provides various advantages:

1. "Get it right the first time" learn how a Barcode works & how it benefits the supplychain from Supplier to Retailer to Consumer!
2. Avoid delays in "speed to market", avoid excessive costs in reprinting /re-packaging
3. Strengthen trade partner relations by complying with global standards

Register now! Call 0861 242 000 or email services@cgcsa.co.za to learn how you can benefit from this session.

Your company simply needs the Skype for Business tool to benefit from this training.

Training is free for 1 person from every new GS1 S.A member company when purchasing a range of barcodes. (excl. Single numbers & 10 number ranges)

Book early to secure your online session!

Join us for this one-day session & learn the fundamentals of GS1 identifiers for products and locations. This course covers features and use of various GS1 Barcodes. Understand application identifiers (AI's) and how they allow the barcode to carry additional information such as expiration date, batch/lot number. Serial shipping container codes (SSCC), which are used to identify cases, cartons, and pallets.

Discover how to use your licensed GS1 Company Prefix and learn how GS1 standards can help you identify products, improve business processes, and reduce costs.
